

Possible combinations with the Bachelor of Arts Egyptology/Ancient Near Eastern Studies

(date 20.05.2022)

A

African Languages, Media and Communication
American Studies
Archaeologies (secondary subject only)*
Archaeology, Christian Archaeology and History of Byzantine Art (secondary subject only)*
Archaeology, Classical Archaeology*
Archaeology, Prehistory and Ancient History*
Art History
Audio-visual Publishing (restricted, starts in winter term, secondary subject only)

B

Book Studies

C

Catholic Theology (secondary subject only)
Communication (restricted)
Cultural Anthropology

E

Economics (restricted, secondary subject only)
Educational Science (restricted)
English Literature and Culture
Ethnology

F

Film Studies (restricted)
French

G

German Studies
Greek (Prerequisites: Graecum; secondary subject only)

H

History

I

Italian

L

Latin (Prerequisites: Latinum; secondary subject only)
Law (restricted, secondary subject only)
Linguistics
Literature, European / Comparative Literature

M

Musicology

P

Philosophy
Political Science (restricted)
Portuguese (secondary subject only)
Protestant Theology (secondary subject only)

S

Slavic Studies - Polish Studies
Slavic Studies - Russian Studies
Sociology (restricted)
Spanish

T

Theater Studies
Turkish Studies (secondary subject only)

* It is not possible to combine this subject with the specialization of Ancient Near Eastern Archaeology in our Bachelor program.

Here you will find more information concerning the subjects:

<https://www.studying.uni-mainz.de/subjects/>